

June 29, 2000

Written by Dan Zaudtke (dzaudtke@costar.com)

Union Ticket

Ticketmaster Moves to Van Buren St.

Ticketmaster LLC, one of the world's largest automated ticket companies, has signed a lease for 20,667 square feet at Union Tower located at 550 West Van Buren St. in Chicago, IL. Relocating from 555 West Adams St., also in Chicago, the company will occupy the entire 13th floor in August 2000. Union Tower is a 17-story, 332,608-square-foot, Class-A office building owned and managed by Development Resources. It is now 86% leased. Gene Ventura represented the builder owner in-house, while Holly Duran of the Levy Organization represented Ticketmaster in the transaction.

By: Dan Zaudtke (6/30/2000)